about us

After years of working either from home or executive office suites, we founded Burbspace for people just like us: aspiring, hard-working, sociable entrepreneurial business spirits. People who want to focus on creating great, innovative products, services and businesses without worrying about rent, WiFi, electricity or even running out of coffee.

Our state-of-the-art workspace offers everything you need in order to get started: a comfortable work area, meeting rooms, phone booths, networking opportunities and, needless to say, coffee, snacks, drinks and more. So why not join our community?

Give us a call today (781) 400-2347 or email us at info@burb.space.
