AT THE HEART OF A NEW COMMUNITY

White City is a home to a thriving community of global retailers, fashion pioneers, and iconic media institutions. It's the definition of a work-life destination – a unique spot where you can experience some of the world's most exciting commercial destinations and London's stand-out cultural sights at the same time. Inspiration is never far away in White City, making it the perfect home for ambitious businesses.

EXHIBITION AT THE DIMCO EAST BUILDING

Exhibition is a 2 floor 34,000 sq ft corporate, fashion and music events and hospitality venue recently opened. This is run by Broadwick Live & Venue who also run the Printworks in Canada Water. The Victorian structure was completed in 1899 and was originally built as an electricity generating station for the London Underground. It was also used as the Acme Factory in the 1988 film 'Who Framed Roger Rabbit?'

WHITE CITY PLACE

White City Place is a creative business district with 700,000 sq ft of new office space. 3,000 BBC staff will continue to make the area a vibrant and creative working environment. 124,000 sq ft has pre-let to the world's largest cosmetics company L'Oreal.

IMPERIAL COLLEGE

This world-leading science-based university is investing £3bn in a 25-acre site, creating a new hub designed to sit at the intersection of commerce and industry.

SOHO HOUSE

Occupying part of the former BBC Television Centre building, White City House has a roof top bar and pool, with 1960's style interiors and artwork that recalls classic British TV shows.

WOOD LANE ARCHES

Transport for London is opening 31 of its railway arches near Wood Lane Tube station, creating a diverse mix of commercial, leisure and retail space as well as new pedestrian passageways and cycle parking.

WESTFIELD LONDON

Westfield London's expansion provides an additional 740,000 sq ft of new retail, cafés, restaurants and leisure, bringing the UK's No.1 ranked shopping centre (Source: CACI) up to a total of 450 outlets.

WHITE CITY LIVING

Designed by Patel Taylor and set within eight acres of green open spaces, White City Living by St James offers over 1,800 new homes as well as boutique shops, bars and restaurants.

NEIGHBOURS

“White City is a vibrant, inspiring and uniquely-connected part of London, and Venture X is excited to now be part of its incredible growth story.
