

Greenpoint

A sophisticated workplace within a revitalized Brooklyn factory

Spanning a floor-through of the Leviton factory building, our Greenpoint location is spacious, sun-filled and conveniently situated one block from the G train and NYC Ferry. Factory windows and concrete floors compliment the plush interiors and built-in furniture, drawing inspiration from the building's industrial past. Offices of all sizes make this the perfect space to grow your company with the help of our dedicated staff and business-class amenities.
